The image shows an outdoor dining area for a restaurant. In the foreground, several white plastic tables and chairs with woven backs are arranged on a wooden deck. The chairs have a light-colored woven backrest and a white plastic seat and frame. The tables are square and white. In the background, there is a building with large glass windows and a white sign that reads "TWO MUCH by Antonio". The building has a modern, minimalist design with a white facade and a dark horizontal band above the windows. A large, textured, light-colored awning covers the area above the tables. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.
